ABOUT

I'm a passionate person about the digital world.
I feel like I have the curiosity to learn new technologies, being always on the edge and improve my knowledge in the development field, and in other digital fields as well.
I enjoy programming, for me, it's more than a job, it's a lifestyle.
I'm self taught, disciplined, decisive and a team player person.
I can't wait to use all my experience and create big things.
